

I believe the Wisconsin No-Call List should be left alone. It allows us to have our right to privacy. If this law is changed I will probably go to an unlisted telephone # or just use my cell phone for transactions, thus they won't be able to call. These people need to find an alternate way to get customers.